

The Vincent Grenache 2015

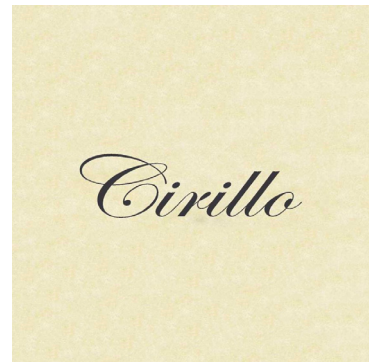

CIRILLO WINES, BAROSSA VALLEY, AUSTRALIA

HARVEST & VINTAGE NOTES

The Cirillo Vincent Grenache lays claim year after year to be one of the country's best value Grenache, and the 2015 is no exception. The Vincent is the baby of the bunch made from a blend of 80, 90 and 100-year-old vine material. Vincent is a charismatic character, just like his maker. It bucks the trend of big, sweet, oaky Barossa Grenache and sits firmly in the bright, cheery and gluggable camp. Part whole bunches give it a lifted perfume and silky texture, while the use of older French oak and stainless steel ensure this is a lot brighter and bouncier than many of its Barossa counterparts. Bright cherry and licorice all-sorts. There's a keen amount of spice to it and a definite herbal edge to the perfume.

The Vincent offers inviting aromas of rich fruit and soft white pepper. The palate; rich with intensity, yet delicately rounded. The generous mouth feel denotes the 80 year old Foudre barrels where this wine has rested for 12 months. A superb Grenache that displays lifted fruit aromas and has a lingering finish. A wine that can be enjoyed now or well into the future.
