

BROADBENT

◆ SELECTIONS ◆

The Washington Post

Douro Reds To Try

Here are wines showcasing the Douro Valley's quality and value in red table wines. Think of them when planning on red meat on the grill or in the smoker. • By DAVE MCINTYRE

CASA FERREIRINHA Papa Figos 2012

★★★^{1/2}

Douro, Portugal, $17

Named for a migratory bird that visits the Douro during spring, this elegant wine displays red-fruit flavors with some of the leafy tobacco notes characteristic of Douro and its ports. ABV: 13 percent.

Country Vintner: Available in the District at Cairo Wine & Liquor, Potomac Wine & Spirits; on the list at Lebanese Taverna, Zaytinya. Available in Maryland at Old Line Fine Wine, Spirits & Bistro in Beltsville; Roots Market in Olney; Wine Source in Baltimore; on the list at Lebanese Taverna in Baltimore and Bethesda. Available in Virginia at Swirl & Sip in Fairfax; on the list at Lebanese Taverna (Pentagon City, Tysons Corner), Me Jana in Arlington.

★★★ Exceptional ★★ Excellent ★ Very Good

www.broadbent.com

From The Washington Post; April, 2014