Sogrape Vinhos ranked the BEST WINERY in the WORLD

Sogrape Vinhos was distinguished as the 2015 best wine producer worldwide by the World Association of Writers and Journalists of Wines and Spirits (WAWWJ). The prestigious Top 100 Wineries of the World ranking is based on very strict analysis criteria, namely the evaluation of awards won by each producer, in a very select set of international competitions that have taken place over one year. In this case, Sogrape Vinhos' participation in 10 of 75 evaluated contests resulted in 131 awards, in a total of more than 3,000 points calculated in accordance with the importance of the medals in question, earning a spot in a relevant first place in this important list. After achieving the 4th position in 2014, Sogrape Vinhos leads, this year, a ranking that is only followed in 2nd by the renowned North American Ernest and Julio Gallo Family and in 3rd by the French Vranken Pommery Monopole Heidsieck.

"It's with a great satisfaction and pride that we receive this award, which shows an international recognition for the path we have pursued in the last years" states Fernando da Cunha Guedes, CEO at Sogrape.
