

Wine Spectator

93
points

Robert Parker

92
points

QUINTA DO CRASTO

DOURO, PORTUGAL

Douro Reserva Old Vines 2010

93
POINTS

This red is luscious, refined and muscular, showing good cut to the creamy, well-spiced flavors. An intense midpalate of cocoa powder carries through to the finish, which features accents of hoisin sauce and plum pudding. Drink now through 2020; 10,000 cases made

—Kim Marcus, Wine Spectator Magazine

92
POINTS

Lovely, focused, elegant and juicy, with fine depth for the level and the vintage and a lingering finish...it shows beautiful harmony and finesse." Crasto is not the only Douro producer that had a nice 2010 vintage - a year reputed to be difficult. However, Crasto is surely one of those that overachieved in it. Drink 2014-2024

—Mark Squires, eRobertParker.com #205, Feb 2013

