DOURO, PORTUGAL

Several varieties of old vines

Wine & Spirits

BEST BUY

Vibrant, brisk and almost blunt in its youthful power, hitting hard on schist flavors, with tannins that are slow to relent. Packed with dark berry fruit, this has the substance and muscular power of many full-on declared vintages. —Joshua Greene, Wine & Spirits, 2016

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

Opening soft, lush and seductive, this expands in the glass and follows through with some tannic pop. It has a firm, tight finish. It has that old school finesse that reminds me of some high-end Port. —MS, The Wine Advocate, April 2016

Wine Spectator

A floral aroma, with flavors of raspberry, dark cherry and chocolate, layered with rich, spicy notes. Hints of pepper show on the finish, which offers moderate grip. Drink now through 2020. 4,460 cases made. —KM, Wine Spectator, 2016

International WINE REPORT

Aromas of anise, creosote, cherry cough syrup and tar leads to flavors of dark chocolate, blackberry cobbler, Turkish coffee with dense concentration. A wonderful value that would stand up to some other house's vintage port bottlings. —OB, International Wine Report, Oct. 2016
