The Girl Next Door 2015

WESTERN CAPE, SOUTH AFRICA

100% Syrah

GREG SHERWOOD MW

Aromas of crushed black peppercorns, black berries, bramble berries, salty blackcurrant and forest spices. Palate has dusty crushed granite minerality & sweet peppery spice. Richly textured, bold & powerful, but elegance is never sacrificed for power. —Greg Sherwood, MW, 2017

Wine Spectator

This delivers a gorgeous beam of boysenberry and plum fruit, laced with a gentle violet hint and carrying through a silky, white pepper-accented finish. Long and refined, with purity to burn. Syrah. Drink now through 2022.

—JM, Wine Spectator Insider, 2016

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

Dark berry fruit on the nose, with a subtle sea spray influence that dovetails with more floral/rose petals scents. Palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, silky smooth in the mouth with cranberry and pomegranate on the entry, a fine line of acidity, with a detailed, saline and lingering finish. Excellent and outstanding. —NM, Wine Advocate, 2017

vinous

Pungent, lively, perfumed aromas of red berries, spices and peppery herbs. Juicy, penetrating wine with lovely inner-mouth lift and no impression of weightiness to its bright berry, spice and herb flavors. Leaves the taste buds vibrating on the long, brisk back end. —ST, Vinous, May, 2017
