The White Lady 2013

90
POINTS

The 2013 White Lady Chardonnay, which spent ten months in barrel (33% new) has a rounded, walnut and almond-scented bouquet that opens nicely in the glass. The palate is well balanced with fresh mango and pineapple on the entry. The acidity is well judged and it finished with subtle tropical tones on the finish. This is an excellent offering from Warwick Estate to enjoy over the next 4 to 5 years. Mike Ratcliffe continues to produce what you might call a “solid” range of varietal wines that offer very good value.
